A solid, professional band with over 20 years' experience and a sense of fun, Automatic Mojo plays rock, jazz, classic soul and dance and favorite standards. Our influences include Eric Clapton, Carlos Santana, Cream, Chicago, Steely Dan, James Brown, the Beatles and Jeff Beck; however, our repertoire is extensive enough to accommodate any need. We have been booked for outdoor festivals, weddings, intimate engagements and private parties. All members have had extensive recording experience, both playing and producing music for themselves and others. The band excels at interacting with a crowd, playing requests, hurling one-liners and creating a circus atmosphere.

Doug Hamborsky:

It was a plastic ukulele that launched Doug's musical career many years ago, and he hasn't looked back since. Doug met Jef while they were in college, when they were both retained as studio musicians. He has enjoyed performing with many local groups including Jocelyn' B, Bill Meyer, Street Life, Family Portrait, Vintage and the incorrigible and loveable Space Cadets. He maintains a home studio, where he records Christmas CDs featuring his family and friends.

Jef Reynolds:

Jef began playing while in his late teens, and has had the honor of working with Alex Chilton, Lesley Gore, Funk Brother Joe Messina and, recently, Sir Mack Rice, Faruq Z. Bey, Ron English and his own Jef Reynolds Jazz Combo. As a recording artist, his credits appear on records by Jo Serrapere and the Willie Dunns, Pub Domain and Scott Loudon. He recently co-produced Alberta Adams' latest release, Detroit is My Home.

Bill Hulet:

A music major at Western Michigan University, Bill began playing drums at the tender age of six, and studied drums under the late Ray Parker at the East Detroit Conservatory of Music. He honed his skills in countless bands while touring across the country. His current work includes the Magic Poetry Band's latest CD, The Kurl of the Butterfly's Tongue.
